Subject: FW: Response to Request for Information

Hi Erik,

In follow up to my voice message, we just learned from FedEx that FedEx failed to deliver the flashdrive containing the enclosures to the response letter attached below to your office today. We provided the enclosures to FedEx for overnight delivery yesterday, and FedEx has not yet given us a full explanation as to why the enclosures were not delivered, but we will provide you with that explanation and documentation confirming that our office sent the enclosures for overnight delivery yesterday once we receive that full explanation from FedEx.

The enclosures will arrive at your office tomorrow morning.

Please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions.

Thank you,

Amanda
